ABOUT KEDARNATH DHAM

Kedarnath, possibly the most well-known and widely traveled dham in our itinerary.

According to old legends, Kedarnath is the place where Lord Shiva granted the Pandavas redemption after many prayers and requests, upon the end of the Kurukshetra war. “Kedar” is one of the many other alternative names for Lord Shiva. Kedarnath is dedicated to Lord Shiva.

It is also the abode of the northernmost Jyotirlinga. The Kedarnath shrine boasts the entire robust Kedarnath mountain range in the background and is situated at one of the most majestic locations possible.

DETAILED ITINERARY

DAY 1 HARIDWAR TO GUPTKASHI

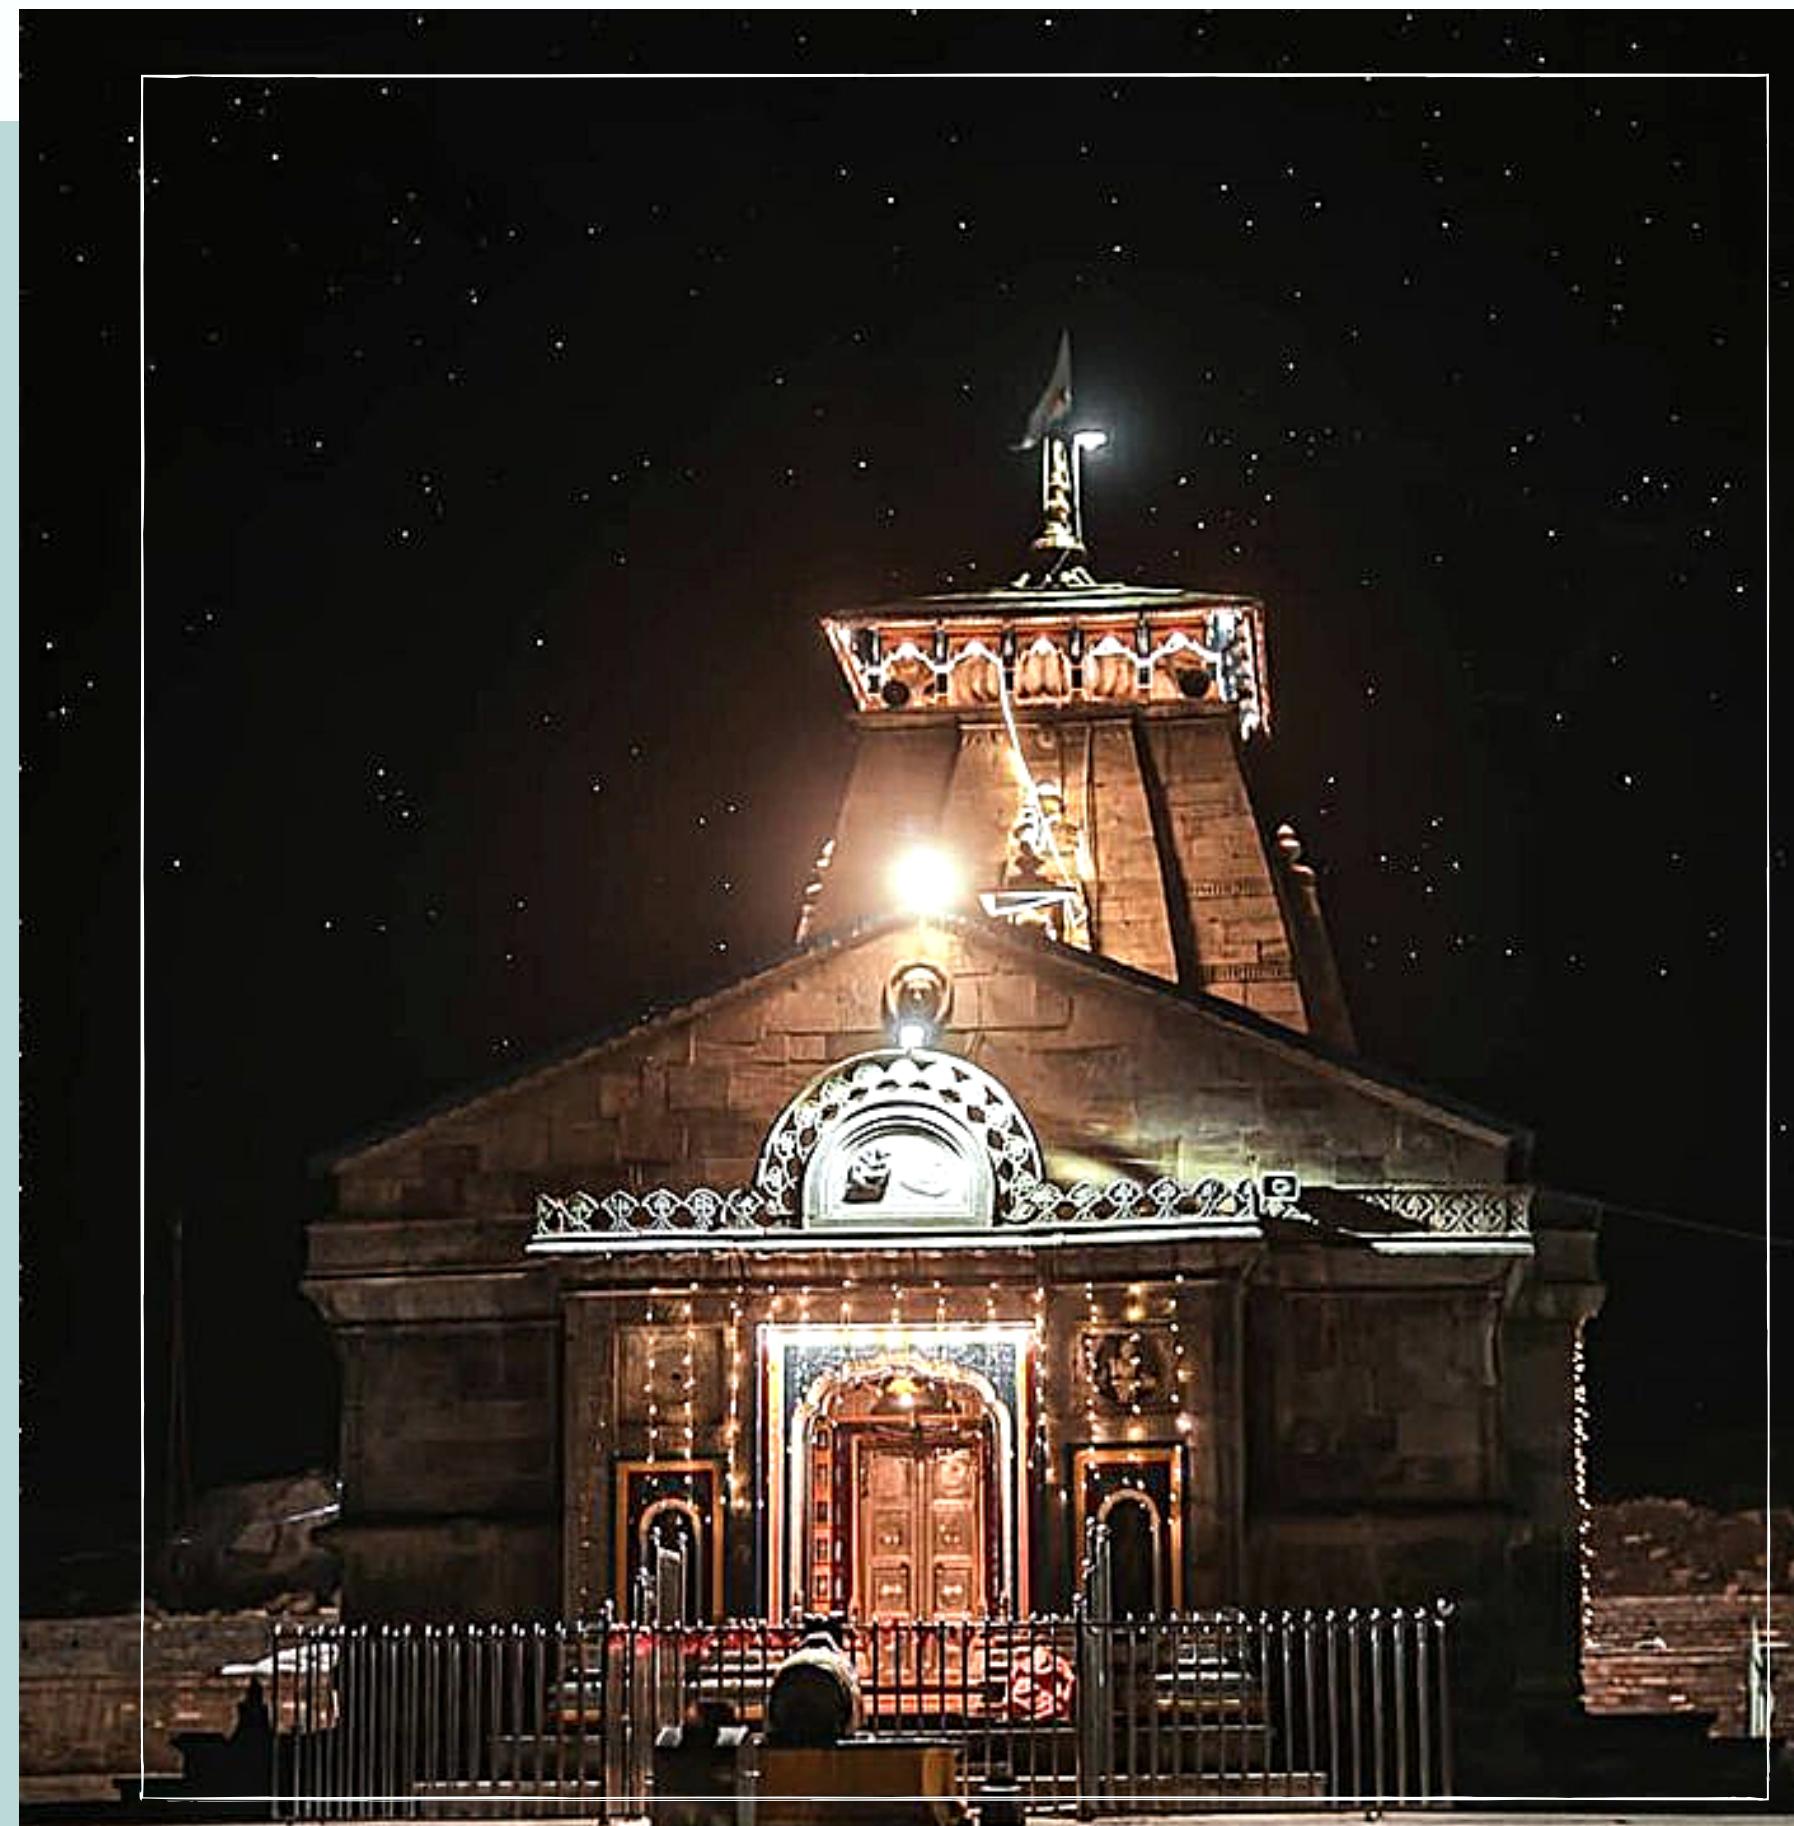

Distance covered: 210 km.

- All the travelers arrive in Haridwar. After a sumptuous breakfast, we drive up to Guptkashi.
- The name “Guptkashi” translates to Hidden Benaras and is derived from the legend that Lord Shiva once hide himself from the Pandavas at this location. We make the journey via the Devprayag and Rudraprayag route, which offers us breathtaking glimpses of the river Alaknanda and Mandakini. One interesting fact is that river Mandakini originates from Kedarnath, which only adds to the spiritual energy and aura that makes this entire trip special.
- While driving alongside the river, we soon find ourselves at the Ardh Narishwar temple at Guptkashi. After taking some time to visit the temple and offer prayers, we check into our hotel and take the night to recuperate.

DAY 2: GUPTKASHI TO KEDARNATH

Distance covered: 30 km (by Road), 19 km (by trek)

- According to old legends, Kedarnath is the place where Lord Shiva granted the Pandavas redemption after many prayers and requests, upon the end of the Kurukshetra war. “Kedar” is one of the many other alternative names for Lord Shiva.
- The Kedarnath shrine boasts the entire robust Kedarnath mountain range in the background and is situated at one of the most majestic locations possible.
- Because it stands tall at 3,583 meters, the temperature witnessed at the Kedarnath shrine is almost always cold. Light to semi-heavy layers of clothing is recommended even during the summer months. During winters, it is so cold that it is not even widely traveled to, and because the climatic conditions can be risky, it is even avoided.
- After witnessing the shrine and spending some time at the dham, we check into a hotel for the night.

DAY 3

KEDARNATH TO GUPTKASHI

Distance covered: 19 km (by trek)

- After a vibrant, calming pooja and a delicious breakfast, we check out of our hotel and make the journey back from Kedarnath to Sonprayag.
- After your driver picks you up at the predecided place, we drive back to Guptkashi, where we check into the hotel once again.
- The itinerary for the rest of the day is empty, giving you enough time to take in and the warm, spiritual energy of the journey so far.

About Tungnath

Tungnath peacefully adorned on the Chandranath Parvat is the highest Shiva temple in the world and the highest Panch Kedar temple of Uttarakhand.

It is the third (Tritiya Kedar) in the pecking order of the Panch Kedars. Tungnath is perched at an elevation of 3, 680 metres above sea level and is considered to be more than 1,000 years old.
